MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

New Delhi-1, the 8th November 1958

G.S.R. 1095.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the All India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951), the Central Government, after consultation with the Government of the States concerned, hereby makes the following amendments in the Indian Police Service (Pay) Rules, 1954, namely:—

Amendments

In Schedule II to the said Rules,

(1) for clause (ii), beginning with the words " 'assumed pay' means" and ending with the words 'in the selection grade', the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"(ii) 'assumed pay' means the pay, which an officer of a State Police Service, officiating or confirmed in a selection grade, would have drawn in the ordinary time-scale (which does not include selection grade) of his service, had he not been officiating or confirmed in the selection grade.";

(2) in Section I,

(a) for the Substantive part of clause (1), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) The initial pay of a promoted officer shall be fixed at the stage of the Indian Police Service senior time-scale next above the amount equal to his actual pay in the ordinary time-scale or his assumed pay, as the case may be, increased at the rate of one increment in the senior time-scale of the Indian Police Service for every three years of service in the State Police Service. The resultant increase should be subject to a minimum of Rs. 150 and a maximum of Rs. 200 over his pay in the State Police Service.”

(b) for clause (i) of the proviso to clause (1), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“(i) where, however, the amount arrived at after the addition of such maximum or minimum increase corresponds to a stage in the senior time-scale of the Indian Police Service, the initial pay shall be fixed at that stage and not at the next higher stage; and where it does not correspond to a stage in the senior time-scale of the Indian Police Service the initial pay shall be fixed at the next higher stage of the scale; and”

(3) in Section III, for clause (3), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“(3) If a State Police Service officer holding in an officiating capacity a post in the Indian Police Service is promoted substantively to the selection grade of the State Police Service and there is thus an enhancement of pay in his service, his pay in the senior time-scale of the Indian Police Service shall be refixed in accordance with the principles enunciated in Section I, as if he was appointed to officiate in a post carrying pay in the senior scale of the Indian Police Service with effect from the date of such enhancement”.

CUSTOMS

New Delhi, the 22nd November 1958

G.S.R. 1103.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 43B of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878), as in force in India and as applied to the State of Pondicherry, the Central Government hereby directs that a drawback shall be allowed in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the said section and any rules made thereunder, in respect of duty paid foreign materials used in the manufacture of public address equipment when such equipment is manufactured in, and exported from, India or the State of Pondicherry, or shipped as stores for use on board a ship proceeding to a foreign port.

[No. 284 F. No. 34/81/58-Cus.IV.]

G.S.R. 1104.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3) of section 43B of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878), as in force in India and as applied to the State of Pondicherry, the Central Government hereby makes the following rules the same having been previously published as required under the said sub-section (3), namely:—

THE CUSTOMS DUTIES DRAWBACK (PUBLIC ADDRESS EQUIPMENT)
RULES, 1958

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Customs Duties Drawback (Public Address Equipment) Rules, 1958.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "Act" means the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878);
- (b) "goods" means public address equipment manufactured in India or the State of Pondicherry and in the manufacture of which imported materials have been used;
- (c) "imported materials" means materials imported into India or the State of Pondicherry on payment of customs duty.

3. Goods in respect of which drawback may be paid.—Subject to the provisions of the Act and these rules a drawback shall be allowed in respect of the imported materials used in the manufacture of the goods exported from India or the State of Pondicherry, or shipped as stores for use on board a ship proceeding to a foreign port.

4. Rate of drawback.—(1) The rate of drawback admissible under these rules on the shipment of the goods shall be the average customs duty paid on the imported materials, used in the manufacture of the goods.

(2) Such rate shall be determined by the Central Government (hereinafter in this sub-rule referred to as the Government) at such intervals as the Government may consider necessary on the basis of information furnished by the manufacturer of the goods and verified by the Government in respect of the duty paid on imported materials during such period as in the opinion of the Government is relevant for the purpose.

5. Manner of allowing drawback.—Drawback shall be allowed on the shipment of the goods from any port in India or the State of Pondicherry subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (a) that the shipper shall, on the relative shipping bill, make a declaration that a claim for drawback under section 43B of the Act is being made; and
- (b) that the shipper shall furnish the Customs Collector with a copy of the shipment invoice or any other document giving details of the description, quantity and value of the goods under shipment.

6. Powers of Customs Collector.—For the purpose of these rules, the Customs Collector may require the shipper or the manufacturer of the goods to produce any books of accounts or other documents relating to the proportion and quantity of the imported materials used in the manufacture of the goods and the duty paid thereon, or to furnish any return in respect thereof.

7. Access to manufactory.—The manufacturer of the goods in respect of which a drawback is claimed under these rules shall give access to every part of the manufactory to any officer of the Central Government specially authorised in this behalf by the Chief Customs Officer or the Chief Customs Authority, to enable the officer so authorised to inspect the processes of manufacture and to verify by actual check or otherwise the statements made in support of the claim for drawback.

G.S.R. 1109.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 18 of the Indian Post Office Act, 1898 (6 of 1898), the Central Government hereby makes the following amendment in the Indian Post Office Rules, 1933, namely,

For rule 201 of the said rules, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“201. A postal article posted in India may be redelivered while in the course of transmission by post without reference to or the consent of the addressee subject to the following conditions:—

- (1) No parcel shall be redelivered under this rule except under the orders of the Central Government, the Director General or such other authority as may be authorised in this behalf by the Director General.
- (2) A fee of one rupee shall be paid in respect of a postal article for the redelivery of which application is made. This fee shall, in no circumstances, be refunded.
- (3) An application for the redelivery of a postal article may be presented in writing to any of the authorities referred to in condition (1) above either direct or through any officer in charge of a post office. In the case of foreign postal articles, this application shall also be accompanied by such other documents duly filled in by the sender as the Director General may prescribe.
- (4) The sender may, at the time of making his application for redelivery of an article to him, request that any communications that may have to be addressed to offices in India or in foreign countries be transmitted by air or by telegraph. In such a case, the sender shall be liable to pay the amount of air mail or telegraph charges payable on such communications.
- (5) Application may be made only by the sender of a postal article or by some other person authorised in this behalf by the sender in writing.
- (6) Every application shall be accompanied by a statement (which may be enclosed in a sealed cover) indicating the reason why redelivery is sought. The sealed cover shall be opened only by the authority authorised to issue the order of redelivery or where such authority is, the Central Government by a Secretary to the Central Government.
- (7) If the authority mentioned in condition (1) above decides to order the redelivery of the article, it shall not be redelivered to any one but to the sender or to some person authorised in this behalf by the sender in writing.
- (8) In the case of postal articles addressed to foreign countries, the facility shall be limited to articles addressed only to those countries which have agreed to afford such a facility. The Director General shall notify in the Post and Telegraph Guide the names of such countries.
- (9) Government undertake no responsibility for inability or failure to redeliver any postal article in accordance with the request of the sender for any reason whatsoever.”
